

POSITION STATEMENT ON INSTITUTIONAL RESPONSE TO GENDER-BASED VIOLENCE (GBV)

WE COMMIT OURSELVES TO

- Support survivors
- Hold alleged perpetrators to account
- Expose transactional and coercive relationships that may render staff or students vulnerable to abuse
- Develop a foundational module on GBV that is educative and preventative
- Protect rights in human capital and students

We are a public institution and an agent of social and gender-justice.

We have a duty to create a safe learning environment and promote constitutional rights to safety.

Cape
Peninsula University of Technology

creating futures

Prof Chris Nhlapo | Vice Chancellor